

Thanks for Giving

Food and Supply Drive 2017

of the Allentown Rescue Mission

Thanks for Giving is held at designated Walmart & Giant locations throughout the Lehigh Valley Friday, November 17th from 4 PM to 7 PM and Saturday, November 18th from 10 AM to 3 PM.

Volunteers donate their time by standing outside of stores, handing out shopping cards to patrons entering, and helping to collect items that are donated. Then help load the Driver's car to bring all the donated goods back to the Mission!

Once the food and supplies are back at the Mission help is needed to sort, weigh, pack and store the food and supplies that have been collected.

Volunteers will be needed during daytime hours before the Thanksgiving holiday on November 21st & 22nd and after the holiday on November 27th, 28th, 29th & 30th and December 1st.

The activities to restock the pantry will take place at the Allentown Rescue Mission which is located at 355 W Hamilton Street, Allentown.

About the Allentown Rescue Mission. Emergency shelter. Nutritious meals. Clean clothing. Chapel services. Medical attention. Community resources. The Allentown Rescue Mission provides services that make a real difference in the lives of men who are in need of help in our community. Some need just a hand up, while others require more intensive, long-term assistance. The Mission is here to meet all their needs.
